

November Senior Coffee Hour

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and at various locations in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest to older adults. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (see below). Requests should be made as soon as possible but at least three days prior to the event.

10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building, 1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue

(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Come to the November coffee hour to learn how Universal Design principles like equity, flexibility, simplicity, and ease of use can make a difference in whether we age comfortably in our homes and communities.

Realtor and Certified Senior Real Estate Specialist Tom Minty is a long-time proponent of Universal Design, a set of principles that—when applied to housing and other elements of the built environment—provides access for all ages and all abilities, all the time.

In addition to the Northwest Universal Design Council, Tom serves on the Seattle-King County Advisory Council on Aging & Disability Services.
