Seattle Municipal Tower Room 4080
700 Fifth Avenue (5th & Columbia), Seattle

The Northwest Universal Design Council invites you to hear award-winning kitchen and bath designer and general contractor Molly Erin McCabe, AKBD, CGP, CAPS, co-owner of A Kitchen That Works™, discuss livability, visitability, and why it's important to create environments that are usable by all people, without adaptation or specialization.

This event is open to the public.

Come learn about kitchen and bath design that works for all people, regardless of age and ability!

The Northwest Universal Design Council (NWUDC) promotes incorporation of Universal Design principles, products, and processes in the built environment so that all people can “live actively by design,” regardless of age or ability. The NWUDC is supported by the Seattle Human Services Department/Aging and Disability Services, the Area Agency on Aging for Seattle-King County (www.agingkingcounty.org).
