

ACCESSIBLE TRAVEL AND TOURISM

The Northwest Universal Design Council and community partners invite you to a forum on accessible travel and tourism

Monday, August 15, 2016
9:00-11:00 a.m.

Bertha Knight Landes Room, Seattle City Hall
600 Fourth Avenue (between James & Cherry Streets in downtown Seattle)

Do you work in the hospitality industry or for an organization that welcomes business from tourists and business travelers? Do you want more visitors? Do you want to grow your business? This presentation is for you. Learn not only how to comply with Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) regulations but how to provide professional service that will ensure a positive experience for travelers and visitors with disabilities, their family members, and their friends, and build your reputation for excellent customer service for all.

Hear these unique perspectives on accessible travel and tourism:

- Patt Copeland, Vision Loss Connections & Seattle Commission for People with disAbilities
- Steve Lewis, Alliance for People with Disabilities & Seattle Commission for People with disAbilities
- Peggy Martinez, Creative Inclusion
- Kimberly Parker, Hearing Loss Association of Washington & Lost in Sound
- Jim Parsons, Wheelchair Jimmy
- Michael Richardson, Northwest ADA Center
- Sheri Richardson, Vision Loss Connections & Guide Dog Users of Washington State

This event is free and open to the public. RSVP via Survey Monkey at <https://goo.gl/i6sUJ0>.

CART captioning and ASL interpretation will be provided. If you require an additional accommodation, e-mail info@environmentsforall.org at your earliest opportunity.
