

Universal Design & Pedestrian Wayfinding

Thursday, February 27, 2020 • 1–3 p.m.

Seattle City Hall, Bertha Knight Landes Room
600 4th Avenue, Seattle

For driving, transit, and pedestrian info, visit <https://bit.ly/1NQugTm>

The Northwest Universal Design Council invites you to hear an expert panel on designing wayfinding systems and tools to meet the mobility needs of all:

- Aditi Kambuj, SDOT
- Adrian Bell, Applied Wayfinding
- Candace Toth, Sound Transit
- David Miller, Lighthouse for the Blind
- Debra Kahn, Washington State Deaf-Blind Citizens

This presentation is free and open to the public. Bring your questions and concerns. Light refreshments will be provided. Registration is encouraged but not required. To register, visit:

<https://bit.ly/2GyMSgR> (EventBrite)

Realtime captioning and an assisted listening system (including hearing loop) provided. For other accommodations or accessibility information, contact Jon Morrison Winters at 206-684-0654 or jon.winters@seattle.gov as soon as possible.

For parking and transit information for City Hall, click here: <https://bit.ly/2RY9s80>

King County
MOBILITY COALITION

Seattle
Department of Transportation

The Northwest Universal Design Council (NWUDC) promotes incorporation of Universal Design principles, products, and processes in the built environment so that all people can “live actively by design,” regardless of age or ability. NWUDC receives support from Age Friendly Seattle, Aging and Disability Services, Seattle Human Services Department.

www.EnvironmentsForAll.org

